What's a festival without clowns and balloons?

Several high school students were sold at a Roman slave auction to raise money for Logan Park. The students agreed to do chores such as oven cleaning, window washing, lawn mowing and car washing. Youth Forestry Camp scholarship available

Do you enjoy the outdoors? Do you enjoy "camping"? Several lucky young people will be awarded scholarships awarded by the state of New York to attend the 1994 Youth Forestry Camp, held August 1st thru 10th, at Camp Lackawanna near Vestburg, Wyoming County in Northern Pennsylvania.

The Youth Forestry Camp is a four day program which introduces young people to the basic, principle of forestry management, through classroom and field experiences.

Young people interested must complete an application form and submit it to the forester in the town of application, get a recommendation from a teacher or youth group leader, and get a signed doctor's approval, and submit the letter to the Youth County Conservation District no later than May 25th.

Successful applicants will be responsible for their own travel and would be responsible for transportation to and from the camp.

Applications and information are available by contacting the Youth Forestry District office, 118 Pleasant Avenue Road, York, PA 17402, or by calling 717-765-2222.

4th Annual Countryside Classic bike trek

Plans are well underway for the Fourth Annual Countryside Classic Hills Trek sponsored by the American Long Association. The Countryside Classic is a three day trek with a two-day option. It is a long distance bike tour that begins in Duncansville, PA and ends in Huntingdon, PA. This year the Countryside Classic will be held on June 21-23. Any person in good physical condition can participate and no special equipment is required. The trek is a terrific way to enjoy the scenic countryside of Pennsylvania. Starting in Duncansville the trekkers will bike approximately 50 miles per day and will spend the first night at the Holiday Inn, in Lewisburg, then on a Raystown Lake camp the second night. There is a $25 registration fee which is applied to the bike rack and is also required to rent a bike. Accommodations, train ride, and meals are included.
